DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 43-64 remain withdrawn from consideration as drawn to a non-elected invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. Claims 1-42 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Carrott, US 6,782,369.

Carrott discloses a method for configuring compensations, providing financial service companies a toolkit for creating and modeling commission schedules used to compensate their sales force, e.g. Figs. 1-5. Carrott discloses a processor, e.g. 500, a memory, e.g. 500, a plurality of modules, e.g. cols. 5-7, lines 65-26, distributors, and licenses, e.g. col. 12, lines 60-67. Carrott does not disclose the term selling agreement associated with a valid license. However, Carrott does disclose a commission received for each sale completed. Official Notice is taken that selling agreements associated with a sales agent having a valid licenses has been common knowledge in the sales transaction art. To have provided such for Carrot would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art. The motivation for having provides such would have been to incorporate common knowledge association means to track sales personal and their productivity. Similarly, Official Notice is taken that document components, life insurance, advances, payment rules, repayments, workflow events have been common knowledge in the sales transaction art. To have provide such for Carrott would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art.

Applicant's July 14, 2004 REMARKS are noted, but not convincing. In short, the features Applicant references have all been common knowledge in the transaction art between multiple parties. To automate a well known complex manual process is not a basis for patentability. See, In re Venner, 262, F.2d 91, 95, 120, USPQ 193, 194 (CCPA 1958). Applicant has in effect, automated an otherwise manual method and the result is the same whether done manually or automatically. Thus, Carrott, in view of common knowledge, is viewed to obviate Applicant's claim language and is not an impermissible use of hindsight.

Conclusion

3. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
